Local and Personal.

Did you see the eclipse Thursday?
Lots of strangers in town Saturday.
Quite a lot of pears were shipped from here this week.

Chipley was well represented at Pensacola Wednesday.
Call on L. Thomas when you want a shave or hair cut.

Mr. Geo. Williams shipped a car load of fine beef cattle Tuesday.

Mr. J. H. Carter Esq., of Marianna, was a visitor here Friday.

Miss Barney Long of Pensacola, is visiting friends here this week.

Everybody went to Pensacola and carried some one with them.

Have you been to see Dekle's new goods yet? If not, go at once.

Nice rains have fallen this week much to the gratification of the farmers.

Mr. W. W. Guiner and son of Economa, was here Tuesday on business.

Mr. P. L. Horne comes in with a very fine melon as a prize for the BADNER.

We call attention of the public to the complete line of school books at Dekle's.

Chew Reynolds Schapp. No cheap tobacco as good. No good tobacco as cheap. For sale by White & Williams. 7-3-21

Mr. J. M. Farrior was called to Quincy last Saturday, to see his wife who was sick.

Miss Nannie Sawyer of Early county Ga., is visiting Mr. Gay and family this week.

You missed the chance of your life if you did not attend the Corn Fair at Pensacola.

Mr. E. N. Everett the mill man and farmer of Wausaw, was in the city Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Urton filled the pulpit of the Baptist church at Orange Hill last Sunday.

The city fathers have our thanks for the timely fixing of both public wells this week.

Rev. Mr. Urton has our thanks for a basket of fine tomatoes, also some fine egg plants.

Mrs. W. M. Farrior and children left last Saturday for a week's visit to relatives at Geneva, Ala.

Master Pebbie Daule, son of W. J. Daule at Marianna, visited his uncle E. N. Dekle here this week.

Judging from the amount of goods that is shipped here, our merchants sell immense quantities of goods.

Mr. J. R. McGeech a prominent turpentine operator, left Thursday for his old home in North Carolina.

No Cure—No Pay.
That is the way all druggists sell Groves' Tasteless Chili Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price 50c.

Capt. L. M. Ware and J. H. Brown, of sec. Andrews Bay, came in Saturday eve and spent a few days on business.

Mr. E. N. Dekle is having some repairs made on a dwelling house he owns on corner of 5th and Jackson streets.

When you want anything in the way of musical instruments or sheet music, don't fail to write to F. M. Clutter, at Pensacola.

W. C. Singletary and wife of Sanders Ala., visited A. P. Armistead this week. Mr. Singletary is tax assessor of Geneva county Ala.

Mr. S. G. Ellis and family of Big Creek, Ala., visited relatives here this week. Sol says ever, thing is O. K. in his neck of the woods.

Capt. A. J. Gay, Corn Fair judge for Washington county, left for Pensacola Tuesday afternoon, to be on hand early Wednesday morning.

We have just received a copy of the Inter State Appeal, a new venture at Florida by Robt. J. Mitchell. We wish it the success it merits.

Nothing succeeds like success. At last the well on 5th street has been fixed. Marshal Watson had it cased out and a curb placed around it.

We have received an interesting communication from Orange Hill, but owing to the crowded condition of the columns it cannot appear until next week.

Mr. E. S. Blake informs us that he sold 225 tickets for the Corn Fair, at Pensacola. Also that there was 75 pack eggs shipped from here to the exhibit.

You may hunt the world over and you will not find another medicine equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by R. Bellamy and J. B. Farrior.

The friends in Chipley of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. May, of DeFuniak, sympathize with them in the irreparable loss of their little daughter, which sad event occurred last week.

It was a grand sight to see that smile on Hon. W. D. Chipley's face at the Corn Fair. The people of Florida can never do him too much honor for his interest in their welfare.

Lightning struck the mill house of J. L. Reddick, a few miles north of here, during a thunder storm last Tuesday morning. There were five persons in the building when the bolt struck, but fortunately none of them were seriously hurt, only severely shocked. The damage to the building was slight.

MARRIED.

OLIVER—McCOLSKY.

Last Wednesday afternoon a 5 o'clock the Baptist church at this place was the scene of a happy gathering to witness the marriage service of Mr. J. A. Oliver of DeFuniak, to Miss Lillie McColskey, daughter of Mr. J. R. McColskey, of this place; the ceremony being impressively performed by Rev. Mr. Rogers, the pastor of the church; after which the happy young couple received the congratulations of numerous friends. They left on the 6:47 train for Pensacola, but will return to DeFuniak, their future home, in a few days. The BANNER joins in congratulations, and wish for them a long, useful and happy life.

"Last summer one of our grand-children was sick with a severe bowel trouble," says Mrs. E. G. Gregory, of Fredericktown Mo. "Our doctor's remedy had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief." For sale by R. B. Bellamy and J. B. Farrior.

FROM CAMPBELLTON.

Fodder pulling is now the order of the day.

Cotton is opening up and the picking will soon commence.

We notice a good many strangers in our section, looking after the cheap lands. We can safely say West Florida is the garden spot of the South, and we cordially invite good people to come to the Chipley BANNER get acquainted with the good people in, and around Chipley, and you will be as happy as a dead pig in the sunshine.

We are proud to learn that the ablespeak er, Rev. Mr. Adgers, and probably others, will assist in a few days meeting at this place, commencing on July 31st. All are invited to come, and Bro Smith will treat you right, too.

A. FRIEND.

Graceville, Fla., July 27, 1897.

Editor BANNER.

Our vicinity was favored by a copious shower of rain Tuesday.

Many of our community believe that with Hon. W. D. Chipley as Governor of Florida and a considerable change in Jackson county officials, times would be better.

Our County Commissioners have made a donation of $900 for an artesian well in Marianna—taxes high and money scarce.

"May the Lord save us from the rule of the 'Three Hundred'."

Spring Road school has been imposed with a teacher acceptable to four patrons, while nine patrons have set up a private school.

The jury manipulation is the bomb-proof against the kicks of the people.

Long life to the BANNER.

J. C. GRANT.

VERNON DOTS.

Quite a number of our citizens went to Pensacola to see the Corn Fair.

Mr. Ramsey McPatter is having a neat and handsome store house built on his lot near the academy.

Dr. J. E. Brock's cozy little cottage or his lot next to the academy is nearing completion, and adds no little to the appearance of that portion of town.

Prof. L. Pratt was quite sick Thursday and Friday last, but convalescent and at his post this week.

Quite a crowd attended court Saturday with the view of hearing the trial of the parties charged with the crime committed at Clarkson, mentioned in your last week's issue, but all were disappointed as the case was continued until the first Monday in August.

Mr. T. Y. Watts was with us on Saturday night, and judging from the smile he wore when he left, "the mullet bit" just as he tells you.

Rev. Robt. Harris preached an able and effective sermon on Sunday last, to an attentive audience.

Our Sunday School is now thoroughly organized and has a large attendance every Sunday.

Mr. John Roche's health is improving and he is to be seen now regularly at the post office.

The carpenters are progressing rapidly with Mr. Lassiter's building and will soon have it completed.

Mr. McKelthen, "Joss" as he is known, has the finest crop of cotton and corn that can be heard of in this section of the county, and shows plainly that he is a model farmer; pity but there is not more like him.

Major W. O. Butler was here Saturday on professional business, and assures us that the company asking for the charter of the Florida Land, Timber and Loan Company are on a safe basis, and expects to accomplish much good both for the farmer and merchant.

It is reported that our County Judge, D. D. Melvin, and Miss Julia Atwell, were married Sunday last; Parson W. J. Tiller officiating. More anon.
